$30,000 GRANT OFFERS HOPE TO FAMILIES FACING MEDICAL CRISES Foxwynd Foundation Awards $30,000 to Nonprofit Help Hope Live

RADNOR, Pa.—On December 29, 2025, the Foxwynd Foundation extended a $30,000 grant to support the mission of the national medical fundraising nonprofit Help Hope Live. The grant will help ensure patients facing a financial burden due to medical expenses and related costs can find trusted and secure fundraising help from the nonprofit's compassionate team at a time of overwhelming need.

The Foxwynd Foundation DAF funded the Foxwynd Foundation's generous donation to Help Hope Live. Help Hope Live's leadership expresses their sincere gratitude to the Bentley family, the foundation's founders, and the Foxwynd Foundation for this generous contribution, which will directly impact patient lives.

"This grant will allow our caring Client Services team to provide one-on-one fundraising support to 175 new clients across Pennsylvania, Florida, Texas, and California," explained Kelly L. Green, Executive Director of Help Hope Live.

"We are pleased to renew our support for Help Hope Live in their mission to provide critical assistance to families facing medical challenges," shared Gloria Galvez, Grant & Partnership Manager at the Foxwynd Foundation. "At the Foxwynd Foundation, we are dedicated to fostering partnerships that align with our core values of compassion and community. We are proud to contribute to this meaningful cause for a second year of need and impact."
